If you wish, you can also receive push notifications from us on your mobile device.

We use the information you provide about others so that we can send them invitations, gifts, postcards or other content on your behalf or through this Web site. Sometimes we can also use this information to provide products, programs or services.

Use of mobile data. When accessing this Web site on a mobile device, we may use information collected for any purpose, if it complies with this privacy policy.

Use of non-personally identifiable information. We use general information about our users and non-personally identifiable information that we collect to improve the design, functionality and content of this Website and allow us to personalize your experience with this Web site and its offers. We use this information to (1) provide, support, personalize, protect, improve and develop products, programs and services, and work with the Website; (2) analyze the use and effectiveness of this Website (including for tracking ads and analyzing web sites or mobile applications); And (3) for us and our partners, business partners and selected third parties, to offer you products, programs or services.

4. How do we use cookies and other technical information?

We, our partners, business partners and third-party service providers, can send "cookies" to your computer or use similar technologies to improve your online experience on this Web site. "Cookies" is a sequence of information that a website stores on a user's computer, and that the user's browser provides a website every time a user sends a request to a website. Cookies can identify you as a unique customer and store your personal preferences, as well as technical information (including click and click data). Cookies control and measure the effectiveness of advertisements displayed or delivered by us or by others or by other networks or websites. Cookies can be permanent, it means that they remain on your computer until you delete them - or temporary as they remain only until the browser is closed.

Cookie management. By accepting this privacy policy, you agree to our use of cookies, as described in this privacy policy. You can configure the browser to reject cookies from

us. You assume full responsibility for any loss of functionality due to the disable of cookies or similar technologies.

5. Do you have any preferences regarding the provision of information?

You may choose not provide us with certain information, but this may lead to the fact that you will not be able to use certain functions of this Web site, because this information may be required for registration; product purchases; Participate in live interactions or promotion; to ask questions; Or initiate other transactions.

6. What information do we collect?

We accept commercially reasonable administrative, physical and electronic measures aimed at protecting your information from unauthorized access or disclosure. This includes the use of Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) software that encrypts the personal information that you enter and stores your information in encrypted form behind a firewall designed to block access from outside our network.

Although we use commercially reasonable efforts to protect the confidentiality of your information, webcasting can not be made 100% secure, as recent cyber-security violations demonstrate. Moreover, we can not assure you that your personal information we collect will never be used or disclosed inconsistently in this privacy policy. We are not responsible for the disclosure of any of your information due to transmission errors, unauthorized access by third parties or other reasons beyond our reasonable control.

7. What about other sites related to this one?

Third parties are not liable to comply with this privacy policy in regard to personally identifiable information that you provide directly to third parties or that these third parties collect it for themselves. We do not own or control third-party websites accessible through this Web site. Therefore, this privacy policy does not apply to information provided to third parties who use or collect it. We are not responsible for the content or privacy policy of any other websites that may provide links to this Web site or for which we may provide links, or for the privacy policies of any of their advertisers. Before visiting a third-party website, whether by using link on this Web site or otherwise, and before providing any personal information to third parties, you must inform the privacy policies and practices (if any) of the third party responsible for this Web site site, and must take those steps that are necessary, at your opinion, to protect your privacy.

8. What does "Do not track" mean? And does the Web-site work?

Do not track ("DNT") is a privacy preference that you may set in your web browser. DNT is a way to tell web sites and services that you do not need specific information about your visits to web pages collected over time, or through websites or online services. We aim to provide you with an exhaustive selection of information that we collect, and that is why we give you the opportunity to opt out. However, we do not recognize and react to DNT signals, because the Internet industry is working to determine what DNT means, which means compliance with DNT, and the general approach to responding to DNT.

9. Do citizens of Canada have special rights to privacy?

The Web site may be subject to the Canadian law, in particular, the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (SC 2000, p.5). If you believe that we have violated your rights to privacy in any way, please contact us immediately.

10. How do you update or correct your information?

In order to receive access to personal identifiable information that this Web site has collected about you, correct factual errors in this information or update your information, please, send an email to info@vrtechnology.cz. To protect your privacy and security, we take commercially reasonable steps to help verify your identity before granting access or making corrections. If we have already provided certain information to third parties, as described in this privacy policy, this information will be retained in accordance with the privacy policy of third parties.

11. Can we change this privacy policy?

We can make changes to this privacy policy, if we consider that it is needed or convenient to manage this site. If we make any changes, we will use reasonable efforts to provide you with prior notice of any changes by sending a notice of the revised privacy policy on this Web site at least 15 days before the effective date or by sending you an email. Each version of this privacy policy identifies the last time we correct it at the top of the web page and we will keep the previous versions of this privacy policy in the archive for your review (or otherwise we will save the copy offline and we will send it on request). Unless we obtain your explicit consent, the modified privacy policy will only apply to information collected after its entry into force, and not to information collected in accordance with earlier privacy policies. We recommend that you frequently check this web page for any changes to this privacy policy. If you do not agree with the modified privacy policy, stop using this Web site. If we do not hear from you, your continued access to this Web site after the effective date of the modified privacy policy will be treated by us as your acceptance of the modified privacy policy, and thus the modified privacy policy will regulate your access or use of the Web site after the effective date.

12. What laws and language regulate this privacy policy?

The law of the Czech Republic regulates this privacy policy and any dispute related to it, without taking into account any choice of law that may apply the laws of any other jurisdiction.

We have developed this privacy policy in English. If there is a conflict between this version in English and any translated version of this privacy policy, the English version will prevail.

13. What else do I need to know about my privacy?

Keep in mind that whenever you voluntarily disclose personal information on the Internet, for example on bulletin boards, via e-mail or in chat rooms, this information may be collected and used by others. Therefore, if you publish personal information on the Internet, which is accessible to the public, you can receive unsolicited messages from other people in return. Please be careful and responsible whenever you are online.

14. What if you have other questions or would like to contact us?

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, our practices or your relations with us, write to us at info@vrtechnology.cz. Please note that persons under 18 years of age are not liable to use this site and we do not collect personal information from persons under 18 years of age or under the legal age.
